

Europe and European Studies at the University of Edinburgh

The University of Edinburgh is a vibrant place for studying and engaging on Europe. In addition to its courses and degree programmes, the University is home to these organisations:

Edinburgh Europa Institute

The Europa Institute is the University's research centre on European integration. Europa brings together over 40 researchers from SPS and Law and offers public events featuring leading academics and practitioners.

 EuropaInstitute

 @EuropaInstitute

 europa@ed.ac.uk

 europa.ed.ac.uk

Edinburgh University European Union Society

The European Union Society is the University's student society on Europe and the EU. EUSoc puts on academic and social events and is popular with undergraduates, though all students are welcome!

 EUSocietyEdinburgh

 @EUSocEdinburgh

 eusocietyedinburgh@gmail.com

 eusociety.wordpress.com

Edinburgh Europa Research Group

The Europa Research Group is the University's postgraduate forum on European affairs. Europa RG hosts presentations by home and guest researchers and organises occasional panel discussions and conferences.

 EdinEuropaRG

 @EdinEuropaRG

 europaresearchgroup@ed.ac.uk

 europaresearchgroup.ed.ac.uk

European Futures

European Futures is the University and Europa Institute blog on Europe and European affairs. Featuring contributions from academics and practitioners from around the world, the blog imagines Europe and its potential futures.

 EuropaInstitute

 @EuropeanFutures

 europeanfutures@ed.ac.uk

 european-futures.org