

Special Edition

Leviathan has published the six winning essays from the Ukrainian Politics Network’s Student Essay Competition.

Featuring authors from the University of Edinburgh and Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv, these winning essays shed light on Ukraine as an independent nation, exploring its domestic and foreign politics in the context of the ongoing war.

The mission of the Ukrainian Politics Network (and of this Essay Competition) aligns with Leviathan’s commitment to providing a platform for critical engagement with complex, contemporary political issues.

This special edition brings together Ukrainian and Scottish student perspectives on Ukraine to a wider audience.

6 essays:

- STRENGTHENING SCOTLAND-UKRAINE TIES In The Context of Russia's Full-Scale Invasion by Iryna Cheban
- RECENTRING THE DONBAS: Forging a Lasting Peace In Ukraine by Ross Doran
- BRITISH PEACE ENFORCEMENT IN UKRAINE by Artur Levko
- NUCLEAR SHADOWS: How Ukraine’s Post-independence Foreign And Security Policy Has Been Shaped By Disarmament By The Budapest Memorandum by Oleksandra Zhyhalkina
- IN PURSUIT OF AGENCY: Understanding Ukraine’s Foreign Policy Post-2014 by Yaroslav Smovzh
- THE SECURITY OF UKRAINE IS IN THE ARMS OF THE EU by Kateryna Lozovenko

You can access last year essays via Leviathan’s website, Vol.15 No.2 (2025): “Tipping Point,” pages 232-269.